The 2021 school year begins at the “Enrique Rodríguez Loeches” University Center in Jagüey Grande

The 2021 school year began at the “Enrique Rodríguez Loeches” University Center of Jagüey Grande in person in its modalities of courses by meeting and at a distance, with a rigorous protocol against COVID-19.

The university in Jagüey Grande emerged in 2002 as part of the universalization of education program created by the Commander-in-Chief of the Revolution, Fidel Castro Ruz. Thousands of professionals have been trained in its classrooms.

The Jagüey Grande university headquarters develop the professional training process in the careers of Agronomy, Bachelor's Degree in Primary and Preschool, Sociocultural Management for development, Physical Culture, Law, Economy and Finance, and Tourism.
